Detailed description of personal data processing purposes and measures

E-mail contact. By contacting us via electronic mail, you naturally provide us with your e-mail address as the sender of the message. Moreover, you might want to provide us with additional personal data in the contents of your message.

Your data is then processed by us for the purpose of contacting you and the basis of processing is your consent based on the fact of you initialising contact with us. The legal ground of processing after performing contact is justified by the purpose of archiving the correspondence for the means of our internal needs.

The content of the correspondence may be subject to archiving and we are not able to clearly determine when it will be deleted. You have the right to request the history of correspondence you have conducted with us (if it has been archived), as well as demand that it is deleted, unless the archiving is justified by our overriding interest, e.g. protecting us from potential claims from you.

Execution of contracts, contract withdrawal, registration of claims or activities preceding conclusion of contract. If you want to use our services, you'll have to provide us with your data, such as your name and surname, company name, accounting address, address of performing the service, e-mail address, phone number, company registration and tax identification numbers etc. Providing us with the data is voluntary, but is mandatory for concluding the contract and further activities related to its execution, such as registering a complaint or withdrawal. We'll also need you data for issuing an invoice and performing our accounting activities.

Date provided by e-mail are stored on a server provided by Proton AG, Route de la Galaise 32, 1228 Plan-les-Ouates, Geneva, Switzerland

Each service performed is documented with an invoice. The invoices are passed on to our accounting bureau IC Partners Stratego S.A., ul. Przechławska 8/13, 03-879 Warszawa

The services are also registered in our internal database for archiving and statistical purposes.

Contract data are processed for the period necessary for the execution of the contract, and afterwards, for the period of expiration of claims resulting from the contract. After that period, the data might still be processed for statistical purposes. Also remember, that we have the obligation to keep invoices for the period of 5 years from the end of the tax year in which the tax obligation occurred.

In case of data concerning execution of contract, you don't have the possibility of correcting your data after the service has been performed. You also can't object to data processing or request deletion of data contained on the invoices. After the period of expiration of claims has passed, you can request your data to be removed from our database.

You also have the right to data portability in respect to the data concerning contracts.
